HOP BACK BREWERY

It was in 1986 that Hop Back history began, when John and Julie Gilbert purchased the freehold of The Wyndham Arms, a public house on the outskirts of Salisbury in Wiltshire. The space in the cellar of the pub and its backyard enabled John Gilbert to begin brewing quality ales for sale at The Wyndham Arms. The history of Hop Back is largely about starting from humble beginnings as we all do; it has developed over time and will continue to go from strength to strength. For the future we hope to be here to provide you all with our quality products you know and love!

Minstrel
4.3% - Golden

Another new English hop for Hop Back that should impart spiced berries, orange and herbal notes to this golden ale.
